Friday 15th November 2024

This Week we have welcomed some new children to our Nursery and they have had a lovely week exploring the setting and being very well looked after by the older children. On Monday we had a 2-minute silence while watching a 2 minute children's animation to help us to think about brave people who look after us. The children have been painting poppies, painting with mud and today, we found ice in the water trays!

Free Range Eggs for sale - We are really lucky to have a supply of free range eggs available to purchase at the Nursery from Ted's lovely family. Unfortunately, there have been some missing payments recently so we are now asking for families to only take eggs if they have their payment, we are unable to take IOUs. Thank you

Christmas Arrangements

Some of you have started to ask about our Christmas plans this year. We will be confirming our plans next week but can tell you that we will definitely have -

Snowman Film night - Children come back to Nursery dressed in their PJs in the evening to watch 'The Snowman' (Last week of term - day and time to be confirmed)

Christmas singing performance - Parents will be invited into Nursery to listen to the children sing on the morning of 20th December. We will then be CLOSED for the afternoon.

Look out for next weeks Newsletter for further Christmas plans and dates for your diaries
